

Embracing the Journey of Walking in Faith: For the New Believer Part I

From battles with anxiety to having lunch with the homeless, Heather shares her own personal and intimate experiences that both led her to Christ and that continue to shape her walk in faith today. Realizing that the journey can be chaotic, confusing, and utterly challenging, she reaches out to new believers to help them along the way. From emotional accounts of personal tragedy to funny experiences with her family, she extends a warm welcome to new believers and promises that life does get easier as we walk in faith with God. The challenges are just the beginning of something wonderful, so be amazed as you see how much you might be able to relate to her personal experiences!
