

Lake George

Lake George is a story about a young woman who willingly delays her future life to return home to aid her father. Home is a fishing resort on the shore of a lake that looks like it was carved out from the middle of a pristine forest. Being 30 miles from nowhere, she expects her life to be dull and well away from anything interesting, at least for a beautiful young, educated woman. She is so wrong. Her story becomes full of smiles and laughter, love and adventure, sadness and mystery, all framed in the resorts on Lake George. And the frosting on the cake: two very different kind of men want her and pursue her in contrasting ways.
