

Well Cross That Bridge When We Go Under It: More Adventures with a Dutch barge

This is the second in a series of books that follow the travels of the Dutch barge Saul Trader on voyages through the canals of Europe. Following on from the first instalment We Dont Go Far but We Do See Life, we journey through Belgium and Holland and the centre of France to the Southern extremities of the extensive French canal system. We do not go into too much detail of the history or architecture of the places we pass there are many other books that cover these aspects in detail. These are light-hearted accounts and anecdotes about the people that we meet along the way, and the amusing and sometimes frightening incidents that occur during our journeys. Boating should be fun, although it sometimes doesnt seem that way, and my books try to encapsulate the rather less serious side of life on the water. As I would sometimes say We'll Cross That Bridge When We Go Under It Also available on Amazon Kindle and in paperback version - We Dont Go Far .. But We do See Life
